

2016 Virginia Republican Primary Certified Candidates.

On December 15, 2015, the Republican Party of Virginia certified that the following 13 candidates qualified to appear on the 2016 Republican Presidential Primary ballot.

On December 16, 2015 The Virginia State Board of Elections (SBE) determined by random drawing the order in which candidates will appear on the ballots for the upcoming presidential primaries to be held in Virginia on March 1st.

Marco Rubio	https://marcorubio.com/
Lindsey Graham	http://www.lindseygraham.com/
Ben Carson	https://www.bencarson.com/
Rand Paul	https://randpaul.com/
Mike Huckabee	https://www.mikehuckabee.com/
Ted Cruz	https://www.tedcruz.org/
Donald Trump	https://www.donaldjtrump.com/
Jim Gilmore	http://www.gilmoreforamerica.com/
Chris Christie	https://www.chrischristie.com/
Jeb Bush	https://jeb2016.com/
Rick Santorum	http://www.ricksantorum.com/
John Kasich	https://johnkasich.com/
Carly Fiorina	https://carlyforpresident.com/

Due to the volatility of the status of individual campaigns during the Primary season whether or not a candidate has suspended their campaign will not be tracked on this document.

Information on absentee voting by mail or in person, voter photo ID requirements, and March 1st poll locations, is available at the Fauquier County Registrar website at <http://www.fauquiercounty.gov/government/departments/registrar/>

Per the Registrar's website

- On every election day, the normal polling place hours of operation are 6:00AM open to 7:00PM close.
- County polling places are used to conduct Primary, Special and General Elections for the election of County, State and Federal Offices.