REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

As revised and approved, Effective June 4th, 2013

2 Bylaws

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be "Fauquier County Republican Committee," hereinafter called the "County Committee."

ARTICLE II - ORGANIZATION

The County Committee is organized under and governed by the "Plan of Organization of the Republican Party of Virginia," hereinafter referred to as the "State Party Plan." No action of the County Committee nor these Bylaws shall conflict with the State Party Plan, as amended from time to time; and to the extent that there shall be a conflict, the provisions of the State Party Plan shall prevail.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The purpose of the County Committee is to provide an organization through which like-minded citizens, devoted to the principles of the Republican Party, can unite in order to promote its principles. The County Committee is to encourage better government through the selection, nomination, and election to public office of Republican candidates who support the principles of the County Committee, and to exercise leadership and responsible action on public issues.

ARTICLE IV - PRINCIPLES

The principles of the County Committee are as follows:

1. As so clearly stated in the "Declaration of Independence", "We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed." God is our Sovereign and all authority rests in Him. We, the people, were created by God and then we created government. It is to be our servant and shall remain so.
2. A strong national defense is essential to peaceful coexistence with the other countries of the world.
3. The Constitution of the United States is to be applied literally, ensuring that in no way shall the sovereignty of the United States of America be abridged by an entity.
4. The function of government is to maintain law and order, with justice, and to provide for the common defense, that individual freedoms shall be preserved.
5. The free enterprise system is the only proper basis for individual and national prosperity.
6. Government functions best at the local level, and all attempts should be made to keep it so.
7. The Bill of Rights limits the powers of the federal government and must be duly adhered to.
8. Our constitutional republic, as defined by the U.S. Constitution, requires that the powers of the government of the Commonwealth of Virginia must be limited to those delegated to it by the citizens of Virginia. The document that sets forth these powers is the Constitution of Virginia, and all officials, whether such by election or other means, must abide by those limitations.
9. Candidates put forth by the County Committee must hold the aforementioned beliefs. Elected Republican officials who consistently fail to uphold these beliefs and principles in the performance of their sacred trust may be subject to censure or repudiation by the County Committee.
10. Members of the County Committee have become such by virtue of their agreement with the Republican Party, and are to continuously uphold the oath contained below in Article V, Section A, Item 1. Any member who fails to support Republican candidates for office is subject to censure or dismissal by the County Committee.
